

10 PATENT CLAIMS:

1. Dry-mop fabric for attachment to a mop handle and designed to clean dry, soiled surfaces, characterized in it consisting of micro- or ultramicro-
15 fibre or filament with a count of 0.60-0.25 DTEX per fibre or filament and by it being woven or knitted with loops on one or both sides of the fabric, with a loop height of 3-9 mm.
- 20 2. Dry-mop fabric according to patent claim 1, characterized in the loops being made of polyamide or polyester fibre or a blend of these fibres in one and the same loop.
- 25 3. Dry-mop fabric as per patent claim 1 or 2, characterized in the cross-section of the filament not being round, but preferably having a rectangular shape with flat sides.